"The Trojan Horse Interiors team were an absolute pleasure to work with. They maintained their professionalism throughout the entire job, left no stone unturned and was conscious of the finest of details. Some of the tasks I issued would have been mind numbing, but at no stage did they attempt to palm any of them off as they too could see where they all fitted in the bigger picture.

What made the difference is that the team could picture what I could see which tells me when they walked in the door, they had an open mind. They didn't walk in with pre-determined concepts ready to punch me through like another cookie in the factory.

I appreciate the charge format that you originally proposed, it gave me some comfort that I was dealing with an ethical entity. I'll definitely be referring you guys in the future."
